

Contents

The history of speed	4	The fastest birds	28
World speed records	6	The fastest fish	30
Motor racing	8	The fastest dinosaurs	32
Pedal power	10	The fastest in nature	34
The fastest transport on water	12	The fastest fingers, the fastest brains	36
The fastest in air and space	14	The fastest sellers	38
Running and swimming	16	More and more people!	40
Climbing and falling	18	Crazy speed records	42
The fastest ball games	20	Or why not slow down?	44
The fastest football	22	Glossary	46
Speedy winter sports	24	Index	48
The fastest mammals	26

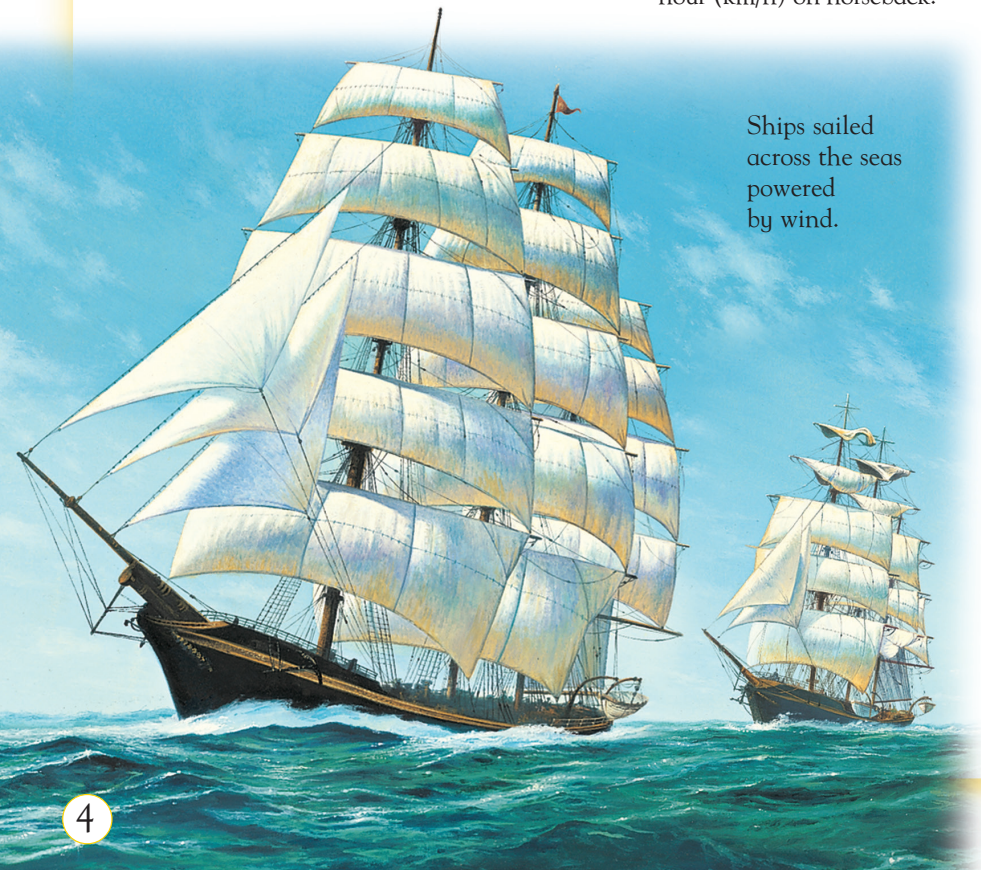

The history of speed

People have always wanted to travel faster. First, they went faster by riding a camel or a horse. Then they used horses to pull carriages with wheels. People also used the power of the wind to travel across the sea.

People can reach speeds of nearly 70 kilometres per hour (km/h) on horseback.

Ships sailed across the seas powered by wind.