

Student's Worksheet A1

Love around the world

Countries Card A

Talk to your partner and complete the table.

How is love celebrated in...?

Japan	Women give chocolates to men on the 14th of February.
Sweden
South Korea	Women give presents on the 14th of February, men on the 14th of March.
Brazil
Estonia	The 14th of February is Friends' Day.
Guatemala
Wales	The festival of love is on the 25th of January.
Vietnam

Student's Worksheet A2

Love around the world

Countries Card B

Talk to your partner and complete the table.

How is love celebrated in...?

Japan
Sweden	Tons of flowers are given on the 14th of February.
South Korea
Brazil	Valentine's Day is not celebrated. The 12th of June is Lover's Day.
Estonia
Guatemala	Older people take part in a colourful parade on the 14th of February.
Wales
Vietnam	On the 14th of February, people in love wear the same colour clothes.

Complete the texts with some of the names of the countries and sentences from the table.

1.

In .....
February is the month of the Carnival, and the romantic Valentine's Day does not match the colourful, festive atmosphere. But there is a different time when love is celebrated.

..... This is probably because the next day, the 13th of June, is the day of St. Anthony's – the patron of marriage.

2.

In .....
.....
men have to give presents to the women who gave to them in February, and the presents have to be at least twice as big!

3.

In ..... the tradition of Alla hjärtans dag (All Hearts' Day) started in the 1960s, when companies selling flowers decided to use the idea of the American Valentine's Day to make money. Today, .....

4.

In .....
The holiday is not only for people who are in love – it is for family and friends as well. People exchange cards and gifts and a popular greeting is "Happy Friends' Day".

