BOOK 1

Rasputina Anna

When you read a short story, you come out a little more aware and a little more in love with the world around you.

George Saunders

Book title: The Wizard of Oz

Author: L. Frank Baum

My review: The Wizard of Oz is an American novel written by L. Frank Baum.

The story is about Dorothy, a girl who one day found herself in country of Oz and began her adventures there. Dorothy is bold, strong-willed and has a kind heart. She also has a cheerful personality. I truly see myself in her.

This story is suitable for all ages and I recommend you read it.

It's very unusual so I was really impressed while reading it.

BOOK 2

Rasputina Anna

There is more treasure in books than in all the pirates' loot on Treasure Island.

Walt Disney

Book title: Robinson Crusoe

Author: Daniel Defoe

My review: Robinson Crusoe is a novel that tells us a story of an Englishman who spent 28 years on island in Central America. This book describes an exciting life of Crusoe and his friends on an uninhabited island. Crusoe is very quick-minded, brave and he is never afraid of hard work. I am so happy that I decided on this book to read. It didn't disappoint.

BOOK 3

Rasputina Anna

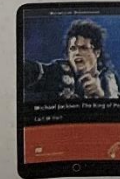

Reading gives us
some place to go
when we have to stay where we are.

Mason Cooley

Book title: The Secret Garden
Author: Frances Hodgson Burnett
My review: The Secret Garden is a novel by Frances Hodgson Burnett. It was written in 1911. It is a story about four friends who find happiness through the simple joys of nature. One of the main characters is a girl who becomes better and kinder while taking care of the garden with her friends. At the beginning she is selfish and mean, but at the end we see a smiling child who is happy. This story is relevant, especially nowadays. I liked this story.
