Book title: What We Eat

Author: Brenda Stones

If one cannot enjoy reading a book over and over again, there is no use in reading it at all.

Oscar Wilde

Write a new text using the new words from the story. This text could be a story, a poem or news report.

Food helps us live and grow. Food gives us energy. We have three meals each day. We have different names for our meals, like lunch, dinner and tea. We need lots of different food to stay healthy. Your body needs lots of water. We need to drink about six glasses of water every day.

Education never ends, Watson. It is a series of lessons, with the greatest for the last.

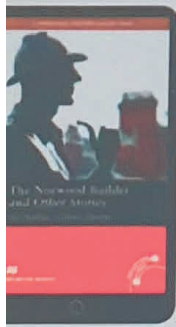

Arthur Conan Doyle

Write a summary of the book in your own words.

There are lots of different kinds of homes we live in terraced or detached houses. We live near our work schools and shops. Some people live in the countryside. They work on farms. Other people live in villages. Some people live in houses on stilts. Other people live on houseboats. People can make their houses from wood, from bricks, from mud.
